

CALL OFF COAST TRIP

Tigers Refuse to Go to California to Play.

CHAMPIONS WANT WATCH FOBS

Design for Mementos of the World's Series Is Decided Upon by Members of the Chicago Club-Players Leaving Windy City for Home-Leave-Will Return in Two Weeks.

Chicago, Oct. 23.—The proposed barnstorming trip of a team of American League stars to the Pacific Coast was called off yesterday afternoon. Most of the players secured for the team were members of the Detroit club, and out of respect for the wishes of the Detroit management Crawford, Cobb, Donovan, O'Leary, Schaefer, and Mullin refused to go.

Secretary Navin didn't like the idea of so many of his stars playing half the winter on account of the liability of injuries, which might handicap them in the pennant race next year. The Tigers gave up the trip with good grace, and "Tip" O'Neill, who was promoting the jaunt, called the whole deal off.

"Jigs" Donohue was called to make the transcontinental trip and play first base. One or two more of the White Sox planned on taking the hike, but all parties seem to be satisfied that the big undertaking has been called off.

Join Barnstormers.

Nick Altrock and Charley Armbruster, of the Sox, left yesterday for New York to join George Davis' barnstormers, who will sail for Cuba about next Saturday. They will play only three weeks on the island and then return.

President Murphy, of the Cubs, announced yesterday that the champions had agreed on the kind of a memento they want for winning the world's title. Watch charms worn the most votes. They will be of solid gold with a cub bear's head on one side holding in its teeth a diamond as large as the National Commission will stand for. On the reverse side will be inscribed the owner's name and date of winning the championship.

President Murphy will ask the commission to let the contract to a Chicago firm. Mordcaid Brown and Orval Overall have left for their winter quarters, Indiana and California, respectively.

Danny Long and other Pacific Coast League club owners were in town yesterday, en route to the meeting of the National Association, which convenes in New York next Monday.

Joe Cantillon and a party of friends who went down the Mississippi on a hunting trip after the big series are expected back in two weeks.

TROY HONORS JOHNNY EVERS.

Home-coming of Cub's Second Baseman Upsets Town.

Troy, N. Y., Oct. 23.—When John J. Evers, second baseman of the Cubs, arrived at the place of his nativity last night he owned the city. The town turned out in his honor, for Evers is popular here and his friends feel that Troy has been honored by the turning out of a player of his caliber.

Evers was met at the depot by the Evers association and thousands of friends. The procession was through the center of the city, Evers riding in a coach. The walks were lined with people. As the train reached the station the band roared, "Hail to the Conqueror." Windows were brilliantly illuminated all along the line and red fire was lavishly burned. A banquet wound up the reception.

MAY DROP FOUR GIANTS.

Browne, McGinn, Dahlen, and McGinnity Slated for Release.

New York, Oct. 23.—A rumor current in baseball circles in this city is to the effect that the management of the New York Giants will dispense with the services of Browne, McGinn, McGinn, and Dahlen before the opening of next season.

A thorough shaking up is to be given the team, and a number of young players are to replace those to be dropped, according to the statement of a person in close touch with President John T. Brush and Manager McGraw.

The latter was very dissatisfied with the showing made by some of the players, which was responsible for the team finishing in fourth place, and as soon as the season closed was very frank in stating that he intended to get rid of some of his men.

BELVEDERE OPEN SEASON.

Baltimore Basketball Team to Play Second Regiment.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Baltimore, Oct. 23.—The Belvedere basketball club has re-elected J. Walter Granger captain for the season. Granger is a master of the game, and the men work splendidly under his captaincy. The club will endeavor to get the best teams from adjacent towns and States. So far, games have been arranged with the Tammany Hall basketball team, of New York; the Muscatines (Iowa champions), and a team from Nome, Alaska.

For the opening game, to be played Saturday night, the Second Regiment team, of Washington, D. C., has been obtained. It seemed to be the only team in the Belvedere's class in this vicinity last year.

Carolina Baseball Association.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Salisbury, N. C., Oct. 23.—The Carolina Association of Professional Baseball Clubs, comprising Greensboro, Salisbury, Charlotte, of North Carolina, and Greenville, Spartanburg, and Anderson, of South Carolina, has been organized here, with Joseph H. Wearn, of Charlotte, president; Fred McGowan, of Spartanburg, vice president; and M. L. Jackson, of Salisbury, second vice president. They pledge four months of baseball, with a salary limit of $1,000.

Retired Fighter Buys Hotel.

Cleveland, Oct. 23.—Reddy Gallagher, formerly of Cleveland, the retired pugilist and fight promoter, of Denver, Colo., is one fighter who was wise enough to save his money after quitting the ring.

"Reddy" purchased a hotel building in Denver, Colo., a few days ago for $125,000 cash. Gallagher's wealth is estimated at fully a quarter of a million dollars, practically all of it in real-estate investments in Denver.

Annapolis Fleets Win.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Annapolis, Md., Oct. 23.—The football team, composed of first-class midshipmen, who do not belong to the regular navy squad, defeated St. John's College reserves this afternoon by 11 to 0. All of the scoring was done in the first half, the middies getting two touchdowns and kicking one goal. During the second half the reserves played stronger, although at no time was the navy goal endangered.

BALDWIN IN FINE SHAPE.

Bostonian Training in Baltimore for Mill with Sullivan.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 23.—Accompanied by his manager, Johnny Mack, and the well-known heavy-weight, Sallor Burke, Matt Baldwin, the Boston boxer, arrived in town yesterday for his fifteen-round battle before the members of the Eureka Athletic Club next Tuesday night at the Germania Maennerchor Hall.

Baldwin looked in the pink of condition, and will wind up his training for the mill here. Baldwin has been keeping himself on edge for the mill up North, and declares he is in the best condition of his career. A look at the little Boston boxer will substantiate his statement. Baldwin says he is already down to the required weight, which calls the men to weigh in at 130 pounds at 7 o'clock the night of the mill.

In his training here Baldwin will have the valuable assistance of Sallor Burke, who is one of the best-known heavy-weights in America. Burke recently fought Jack Johnson, the colored heavy-weight champion, a hard battle, and is the only man that ever was credited with knocking out Joe Grim, the human punching bag. This is a trick that Bob Fitzsimmons, Jack O'Brien, and other famous big men failed to turn. It is more than likely that Burke will appear in this city in the near future with some good man. Manager Herford has several formidable opponents in mind for him. If Burke is matched with some big man, this will be the first heavy match arranged here for a long while.

AUTO SHOW SEASON BEGINS

Exhibition by Automobile Club of America Opens To-night.

New York, Oct. 23.—New York's annual automobile show season begins to-morrow night when the Automobile Club of America opens in the Grand Central Palace its eighth annual exhibition of motor-driven vehicles and accessories in which the American Motor-car Manufacturers' Association and the motor and accessory manufacturers are participants.

The club show runs until the night of October 31, and then the Association of Licensed Automobile Manufacturers opens its show in Madison Square Garden on November 2, which runs until November 9. Both of the "earlier" Grand Central Palace and Madison Square Garden functions are limited to American products, so far as automobiles are concerned, as the foreign cars are to be displayed in Madison Square Garden from December 28 to January 4, when the Importers' Automobile Salon will hold its exhibition.

Grand Central Palace presented a very animated scene all of to-day and until late to-night, with hundreds of anxious sales managers hurrying around making frantic efforts to get their exhibits into the building and installed in the spaces they are to occupy for the next week.

To the critical observer there was plenty of proof that a great many manufacturers have gone in for extensive experimental work in the commercial vehicle department of the industry, as there were a number of motor driven trucks carrying live pleasure cars to the doors of the big show building, the trucks being ones about which no public announcements have been made, as the makers have built one or two to use around their plants, in order to test out the machines very thoroughly before beginning to turn them out for the market.

Along automobile row and in the hotels where motorists congregate, the show and new models were the sole topics of conversation. Manufacturers from all over the country were greeting friends, many of whom they had not seen since the show in Chicago last winter. Among these men there was much talk over the merits of four-cylinder engines as compared to those having six cylinders, with here and there an earnest advocate of the two-cylinder engine, and an occasional adherent of the good old "one-lunger."

FORT MYER GAME POSTPONED.

Contest with Hatchettes Will Be Played Next Wednesday.

The game with the Fort Myer team which Manager Ball arranged for George Washington yesterday, had to be postponed until next Wednesday, by reason of the fact that the soldiers were unable to get off duty because of a funeral at the barracks.

George Washington will have its hands full for the next two weeks. Saturday the team meets the fast Maryland Agricultural College, Wednesday the Fort Myer team, and Saturday following Gallaudet. The squad, which numbers over thirty, is out practicing every evening, and is making much progress under the watchful eye of Coach Neilson.

LUSH MAY LOSE HIS SIGHT.

Condition of Yale Coach Injured Here Last Spring Serious.

Special to The Washington Herald.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 23.—There will be no baseball practice at Yale this fall. This seems unnecessary, but there appears to be no help for it. Coach Lush is on the football eleven, and the most prominent candidates for baseball are trying for places on that team. William Lush, the coach, has not recovered from the injury to his eye received last spring at Washington, and is unable to direct the practice of the club. The absence of the captain, as it was hoped he would be able to do.

The doctors have advised entire rest for his eyes, both of which are now affected. He has given up his work in the medical school, where he has been taking courses for two years. As there is no one else to whom the fall work can be delegated, it has been abandoned.

Gonzaga Eleven Wins.

The football team representing Gonzaga College defeated the Phelps School eleven yesterday in a hard game of football.

Score 12 to 10.

DON CREOLE DISAPPOINTING

Buxton Has Mount on Well-played Colt, but Gets Away Last—After Stumbling, He Makes Up Lost Ground Too Rapidly and Tires at the Head of the Home Stretch.

New York, Oct. 23.—It was hard picking at Jamaica to-day, the talent losing heavily on the defeat of four favorites. The weather was extremely pleasant and probably 15,000 people were on hand when the first race was started at 2:30 o'clock.

The running of the Southampton handicap, at a mile and a sixteenth, was a big disappointment for those who backed Don Creole from 3 to 4. The colt was so much the best that with any kind of fair racing, he and a competent rider he would probably have won in a gallop. Buxton had the mount, and when the gate went up he got Don Creole away last. As he reached the lower turn, Don Creole stumbled with his knees, and Buxton escaped a fall by throwing his arms around the colt's neck. As the boy regained his seat and stirrups he seemed to lose his head completely, for he cut Don Creole loose at the end of the turn, and before another furling had been covered the colt, with a terrific burst of speed, took the lead.

After that he remained in front to the head of the stretch, where he began to tire as Gretna Green, 11 to 5 favorite, challenged and passed him.

But Faint, 7 to 1, then moved up quickly and in a fierce drive the race by a head, with Gretna Green three lengths before Don Creole. Sea Wolf, 16 to 5, and Don Enrique, 4 to 1, had no speed. The time was 1:47.
